When submitting forms or information over the internet, there is always the risk that the information provided can be viewed by someone else.

The City of Monroe takes all normal precautions to protect its data, and we only ask for the minimal information necessary to process your request.

However, you are submitting this data with the understanding that we cannot guarantee this information will not be intercepted.